

WAIPAPA BAY

2018 Sauvignon Blanc Silver Medal

2019 TEXSOM International Wine Awards

We are thrilled to announce the 2018 Waipapa Bay Sauvignon Blanc was awarded a silver medal by a team of 66 expert judges, in a competition comprised of 3,294 entries from around the world.

Among the 52 New Zealand wines that were awarded medals, the 2018 Sauvignon Blanc ranked top of its class for value.

According to the Journal of Wine Economics, TEXSOM International Wine Awards is highly rated among the top competitions, noted for its ability to differentiate quality and offer judging consistency year-on-year. Of the competitions evaluated -- some of the most-recognized in the United States -- TEXSOM IWA is the most selective.

